

Mechanic Slaps Town With Civil Rights Suit

'Thousands' of summonses called into question

By Russell Drumm | May 24, 2012 - 11:39am

A lawsuit that was to be filed in Federal District Court in Central Islip this morning charges that East Hampton Town officials, including a former town supervisor, a police lieutenant, two code enforcement inspectors, two town attorneys, and four former town councilpeople, conspired to deny a Montauk auto mechanic of his civil rights.

Tom Ferreira, outside his house on Navy Road in July of 2010, says the